FREESTYLE DANCE
FESTIVAL

ABOUT ENDLESS STYLES FESTIVAL

Endless Styles Festival is a four-day celebration of urban dance, music, and cultural exchange set in the heart of Waikiki, uplifting the core principles of peace, love, unity, and having fun. Now in its sixth year, the festival bridges Hawai'i's local creative community with a global network of dancers, expanding access to urban dance culture and creating enriching experiences that resonate across age, identity, and geography. Endless Styles is where culture is preserved, shared, and grown—together.

CULTURAL REACH & INFLUENCE

Our collaboration with Stance—the premier dance media platform allows Endless Styles to share Hawai'i's story with the world. Together, we generated over 1.5 million impressions last year, showcasing dancers, battles, and the deeper spirit of aloha behind our movement. With Stance's network having over 3 million followers and reaching 46+ million impressions globally, this partnership expands our cultural voice, uplifts local artists, and places Hawai'i firmly on the international dance map.

Past international competitors include Phillip Kim, 2024 Olympic Gold Medalist, and Victor Montalvo, 2024 Olympic Bronze Medalist.
